Cutera, Inc. (the "Company") is unable, without unreasonable effort and expense, to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K (the "Form 10-K") for the year ended December 31, 2023 by the March 15, 2024 filing deadline. The delay was due to additional time spent on the recent restatement of the financial statements included in the amended Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q/A for the periods ended March 31, 2023 and June 30, 2023, both of which were filed with the SEC on March 5, 2024.

Certain statements in this Form 12b-25, other than purely historical information, are "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, Section 27A of the Securities Act, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, including, without limitation, statements regarding the Company's expectation on when it will file the Form 10-K. Forward-looking statements are based on management's current, preliminary expectations and are subject to risks and uncertainties, which may cause the Company's actual results to be materially different from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to the risk that the Company is not able to complete its Form 10-K in a reasonable time period, and the risk that the Company finds errors in its consolidated financial statements or additional material weaknesses in its internal control over financial reporting. The Company undertakes no obligation to update publicly any forward-looking statements to reflect new information, events, or circumstances after the date they were made, or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events. If the Company updates one or more forward-looking statements, no inference should be drawn that it will make additional updates concerning those or other forward-looking statements.
